Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that this newsletter finds you well.

Easter Celebrations

It was wonderful to see our Year 5 pupils present their Easter Assembly this week. Both classes performed brilliantly and the parents who were able to attend thoroughly enjoyed what they saw, as the feedback below demonstrates:

“It was adorable, the kids did really well.”

“Brilliant performance Year 5. Oscars for all!”

“Well done to all for their hard work; really enjoyable.”

“Absolutely fantastic play, amazing acting. So very proud!

Really enjoyed today’s play. Great for the kids and parents.”

“Excellent performance. Good confidence. Fantastic dance moves.”

“Absolutely stellar performance by everyone concerned. The acting and diction was superb. Everyone was amazing, they should be proud of themselves and each other. This has made my day. A very happy grandparent.”

Well done also, to all children from Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 who took part in the Easter Bonnet Parade on Wednesday. We were treated to some fabulous creations. I would also like to congratulate all our Key Stage 2 pupils who took part in the Decorate an Easter Egg Competition. The standard was really high and I was extremely impressed with the originality and imagination that our children have shown. Finally well done to our Easter Egg Hamper winners.

Water Bottles and Morning Snacks

Morning snacks - school provides a healthy snack to every pupil each day, therefore snacks, especially crisps, cereal bars and cookies should not be sent into school for a morning snack.

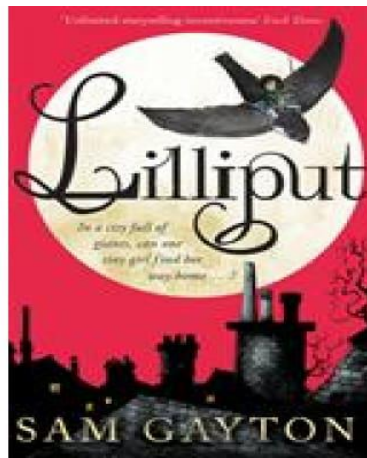

Water bottles - every child has a water bottle in school that is washed out and sterilised every day, they do not need to bring one in from home.

Reading Inspirations

This week's recommendation comes from Aisha who is a Pupil in Year 5.

Lilliput is about a girl named Lilly from a small island named Lilliput, where everyone is very tiny. Lilly was captured by a man named Gulliver who is a giant. Lilly wants to go back to Lilliput because it is where she is from. Gulliver made a book of travels and his goal is to give it to the Prince and make it popular. Once, Lilly spilt candle wax on it on purpose just because she was angry at Gulliver. Her punishment was being put into a disgusting sock full of fleas.

At the moment I am reading a part where Lilly encounters people to help her with her escape plans. I would like to read it all but that will take me about a month because I am now half way through.

I wish you and your families a happy, safe and peaceful Easter holiday.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. J Cusack
